

SIN WITH SEBASTIAN

BRINGING PUNK INTO POP

PUNK POP! EP

sin with sebastian: Punk Pop! The name says it all:

But beware - if you are thinking seventies and sex pistols - you got it all wrong. sin with sebastian have come a long way since their 1995 smash hit Shut up (and sleep with me) - but they are still maneuvering in the wide fields of Pop, Dance and Electro.

So why PUNK Pop?

In the words of sin with sebastian: „Punk is a state of mind - not a haircut.

It means: Daring to be different - non-conformity - standing up for your beliefs and acting against the mainstream - if you feel like it. Our whole attitude regarding music is pure punk.”

Apparently no problem for sin with sebastian.

And also lyricly it spans a wider range than you might expect: The Album is about buddism (What it takes), drugs (Starving@the sun), sex (Zipper), love (Fuck you - I am in Love..) and music itself (Punk Pop).

With this new album sin with sebastian are definitely breaking free from the perfect 3 minute pop song - although you still find it in (Fuck you - I am in Love) heading towards more experimental grounds.

But above all Pop remains the big mothership that makes this wild mixture a listening adventure.

Sin With Sebastian's first single reached top 10 chart positions almost worldwide (Nr.1 in Spain, Mexico, Austria, Finland, Letonia) entered the U.S. Billboard charts and reached double gold status. The single eared numerous international awards and was nominated for the German echo award.*
